General Instructions

Who Must File

Any person who is required to pay the commercial tax to the IRD must file both quarterly and annual tax returns. This form is for the annual commercial tax return ONLY. A separate form is used for quarterly commercial tax returns. Unless an exception applies, the commercial tax applies to anyone engaged in the following activities:

- Domestic production and sale of goods.
- Importing.
- Trading (selling goods for cash, credit, deferred payment, advance selling, exchange, or consignment).
- Providing services.
- Providing services.

Exceptions. The commercial tax does not apply to:

- The goods and services that are exempted commercial tax as prescribed by 2020 Union Tax Law.
- Goods produced and sold, or services rendered solely for religious or charitable purposes by any religious or charitable organization. Charitable purposes include actions to improve education and health, helping the poor and victims of natural disasters (as long as the supplies or donations are for the benefit of the people).
- Businesses in the cooperative or private sector if the proceeds from the sale of goods or services do not exceed the following amounts:
 - 50,000,000 kyats for the production and sale in Myanmar of goods subject to commercial tax within the tax year.
 - 50,000,000 kyats for services subject to commercial tax within the tax year.
 - 50,000,000 kyats for a trading business within the tax year.

Explanation: Sales proceeds of 50,000,000 kyats or service revenue of 50,000,000 kyats means sales proceeds or service revenue to be received within the 12 consecutive months including the month of establishment.

If any of the proceeds from sales and services are received in foreign currency, the proceeds generally must be converted to and paid in kyats in accordance with Commercial Tax Regulations.

The tax must be paid by:

- The importer for imported goods.
- The producer, trader, importer, or service provider if they sell domestically produced or imported goods or resell goods or provide services. They must collect the tax from the purchaser or recipient of services.

When To File

You must file the annual commercial tax return within three months after the end of relevant year (ending on 30 September). The 2020/2021 annual return is due on January 3, 2022.

Penalties

If you are required to file a tax return, but you fail to do so by the due date, you are liable to a penalty equal to the greater of _

- five percent of the amount of tax owing, plus further one percent of the amount of tax owing for each month or part of a month during which the failure to file continues, but not beyond the time when the Director General issues an assessment, or
- K 100,000

“Amount of tax owing” includes monthly or quarterly instalments of tax for the year.

If you are unable to file or pay within the stipulated time, you can apply, in advance, to the relevant tax offices for an extension of time on a prescribed form in accordance with the Tax Administration Law. If the extension is granted, the penalty does not apply and you will not be prosecuted.

If tax is underpaid, or might have been underpaid, as a result of an incorrect statement or material omission in the tax return, and that statement or omission is a result of intentional conduct or negligence on your part, you are liable to a penalty in the amount of _

- 75 percent of the underpayment if the amount of underpayment is more than K100,000,000 or 50 percent of your tax liability.
- 25 percent of the underpayment if the above paragraph does not apply

If the amount payable by or refundable to you is inferior to or exceeds the actual payable or actual refundable amount as a result of assessing the tax on the false or misleading statement made by you, you are liable for a penalty of K 150,000 and the greater of _

- the difference between an actual amount of tax payable and an amount of tax that would have been reduced; or
- the difference between an actual refundable amount and an amount that would have been refunded in excess

If your failure to file a tax return is to wilfully impede or to attempt to impede the administration of tax in accordance with the Tax Administration Law, you are guilty of an offence and are liable on conviction to a fine of K250,000, or, to imprisonment for a term up to one year, or both.

Specific Instructions

Taxpayer Details

Line D

Check the “initial return with IRD” box if this is the first commercial tax return you have filed for this taxpayer. Check the “final return with IRD” box if this is the last commercial tax return being filed for this taxpayer (for example, the taxpayer no longer exists because it went out of business). Check the “amended return for the 2019/2020 fiscal year” box if you are correcting a previously filed annual return for the 2019/2020 fiscal year. Check the box “SEZ exemption” if you are given an exemption of commercial tax under the Myanmar Special Economic Zone Law. Attach a copy of the commercial tax exemption certificate. Check the box “Grant Aid exemption” if you are given an exemption of commercial tax under the Myanmar Special Economic Zone Law. Check the box “Grant Aid exemption” if you are engaged as a main- or sub-contractor in the projects that are implemented through Grant Aid. Attach a copy of the commercial tax exemption certificate. Check the “change of address” box if you changed your address since your previous tax return was filed.

Part A, Column (a)

Sales. Sales are taxed based on the proceeds of the sale for domestic production and the landed value for imported goods. For specific goods listed in the Specific Goods Tax Law, commercial tax will be charged at five (5) percent on the sale proceeds including the specific goods tax and, if imported, commercial tax is charged at five (5) percent of the landed cost including the specific goods tax. Do not include the commercial tax that you are calculating with this return in column (a). Proceeds of the sale include money received from the sale of goods (including packing materials) in cash or on credit or by another deferred payment or sale in advance system. If it is the exchange of goods, it is the value determined in doing so. This expression includes the value of packing material for packing the goods.

Part C

Part C, Line 2

A taxpayer may be able to offset the commercial tax paid for producing and selling of goods against commercial tax due on purchasing, trading the goods or rendering services. See Regulation 42. Fill in the amount of credit for commercial tax paid including on IRD(CT)-31 Certificate of Domestic Sales & Purchases form on this line. Exclude Commercial Tax paid on unsold goods (inventory). Attach IRD(CT)-33 Certificate of Commercial Tax Offset form prepared based on IRD(CT)-31 forms.

Regarding exports, the commercial tax paid at the time of purchase or production of the goods may be offset from the commercial tax due on the export according to the regulations. Notwithstanding the commercial tax regulations, if the commercial tax due on the export is less than the commercial tax paid at the time of purchase or production of the goods, a refund may be demanded. This does not apply to goods which are bought in the country and brought overseas for personal use.

Any surplus amount remaining in IRD(CT)-31 and IRD(CT)-32 after offsetting shall be regarded as business expense and can be deducted in calculating income tax for that financial year.

Part C, Line 3

A taxpayer may be able to offset the commercial tax paid for producing and selling of goods against commercial tax due on importing the goods. See Regulation 42. Fill in the amount of credit for commercial tax paid per IRD(CT)-32 Certificate of Commercial Tax on Imported Goods form in this line. Attach IRD(CT)-33 Certificate of Commercial Tax Offset form(s) prepared based on IRD(CT)-32 form(s).

Regarding exports, the commercial tax paid at the time of purchase or production of the goods may be offset from the commercial tax due on the export according to the regulations. Notwithstanding the commercial tax regulations, if the commercial tax due on the export is less than the commercial tax paid at the time of purchase or production of the goods, a refund may be demanded. This does not apply to goods which are bought in the country and brought overseas for personal use.

Any surplus amount remaining in IRD(CT)-31 and IRD(CT)-32 after offsetting shall be regarded as business expense and can be deducted in calculating income tax for that financial year.

Part C, Line 4

Indicate the total of commercial tax monthly payments made during the year. You may adjust the amount of monthly payments to account for any tax overpayment carried over from the previous year or previous quarter.

Part C, Line 5

Previous year tax overpayment. Enter the amount of tax overpaid from last year (2019/2020 fiscal year) that you elected to have applied to this year's tax liability.

Part C, Line 7

Balance due. The amount on line 7 is the amount you must pay when you file the return. You must file the return at the Township Revenue Office, Medium Taxpayer Offices or Large Taxpayer Office, whichever applies.

You must pay the tax due on a monthly basis within 10 days after the end of each month. The tax payment must be made at the Myanmar Economic Bank. Retain the challan (or receipt) that you receive from the bank for your records. You can make payments using MPU card through www.ird.gov.mm website or using Customer Credit Transfer Function (CCT) of the CBM-Net system of the Central Bank of Myanmar through private banks. Once the payment made through MPU or CBM-Net is received by the relevant accounts of MEB, a tax receipt with secured QR code will be emailed to the taxpayer. This electronic receipt is deemed to be a challan and can be retained for your record.

Part C, Line 8

Amount overpaid. The amount on line 8 is the amount overpaid for this year if you have made no errors in completing the return.

If the amount of tax which has been paid by a taxpayer exceeds the amount of tax assessed or found to be payable,

- (a) apply the refundable amount against the taxpayer's assessed liability to pay tax, interest, or penalties to which the Tax Administration Law applies; and
- (b) apply an amount remaining against the taxpayer's liability to make advance payments of tax that will become due within the succeeding twelve months.
- (c) Subject to subsection (a) and (b), refundable amounts must be paid.

A refund or credit may be made only if the taxpayer applies for it within six years after the end of the tax period to which the assessment relates or if the Director General finds it within that period.

If there is a remaining amount of overpayment after complying with the Section 43 of the Tax Administration Law and you want to carry forward it to the next tax year, tick the box on line 8.

Declaration of Paid Preparer

Before you file the return, you must ensure the person you paid to prepare the tax return (for example, your independent accountant or auditor) signed the declaration on page 3. If an employee of yours prepared the return, no signature is required in this part.

Note: Submission of false documents is a violation of Section 177, Myanmar Penal Code.
